We all want friends—even if we don't want to admit it. We all want someone to hang out with, someone to talk to, someone who knows us. But friendship requires something from us. It's not just what we get or what makes us feel comfortable or happy. There's a smart way to do friendship, a way with intention, a way that will draw us closer to God's heart—if we surround ourselves with the right people. That doesn't mean our friends have to be clones of us—but it does mean that they at least help us move in the right direction.

One House meets Sunday nights for high school students beginning at 5:30-7:30pm. We're mixing it up every week just to keep you guessing...Connect...twice a month we gather in a home for dinner and student-led studies about how to "walk out" our faith. We keep life interesting during our cell group nights held monthly and our students make a difference by serving together. Check out your student led ministry...Sunday nights are different at One House!

If you're in 5-8th grade InsideOut is for you. Join us every Wednesday from 6-7:45pm for crazy games, the news, raffles & prizes, awesome cells groups, and relevant messages just for you. Bring a $1 for pizza & a friend or two...cuz this ain't your grandma's youth ministry!
